3193 - ~~piece of light colored, ribbed banding in silk? narrow (5mm)~~ light, very coarse tabby (stocking?)

3223 - five sub-numbers

a) black, wool twill (1over, 2under herringbone), 7 th/cm, loose, small w/ no original edge

b) light (undyed?), fine tabby w/ nap, closely sheared (flannel), short length of edge w/ imprint of sewing - 11 thr/cm c, ~~d~~, e) dark brown (natural?), 9-11 th/cm ± tabby - all seem to be same cloth, prob. same garment. Seams/edges, some at angle to weave, so a garment, not a blanket one hemmed corner

d) dark blue (dyed) woven wool tape, coarse, warp 5th/cm 3248 - ~~three~~ four subnumbers

a) ~~not yet found~~ silk banding

b) string

c) dark brown (natural?), rust stained, tabby wool ~~+~~ flannel 12-13 th/cm, hemmed corner w/ traces of hooks/eyes (holes in hem + rust) - different from 3223 c-e and 3248 d

d) dark brown (natural?), tabby 9-11 th/cm, very similar to 3223 c-e, some edges, one small piece possibly shoulder wing

3252 - at least four subnumbers

a) ~~not found~~ silk band, probably decorative appliqué to a garment

b) dark brown (natural?), some staining, tabby 9-11 th/cm, seam, no nap surviving

c) " " " " shoulder strap parts included

d) " " " " , edges
