Discover Anno – Museums across Hedmark

From charming rural village museums to institutions of national and international importance, Anno offers a wide variety of experiences. Step into history, meet fascinating characters, uncover the secrets of the forest, and explore culture and nature from fresh perspectives.

Space for Time and People

Anno established Norway's first regional history center in Hamar. Museum and archive merge together, to open a unique gateway to the past – preserving and sharing our cultural heritage in new, engaging ways. The history center at Domkirkeodden is a year-round destination from summer 2026, for the benefit of the local community, the wider region, and tourists.
